Board Happenings

The Hoke County Board of Elections recently attended a North Carolina State Board of Elections Conference. During conference the Board Members and Office Staff attended several workshops where they were able to learn how to “Bring It” back to our voters and citizens of Hoke County in front of the 2024 Presidential General Election. Some of these workshops included: Building Trust in Elections, Connecting & De-escalating with Voters, Handling Hazardous Materials, and Designing Materials to Help Voters Succeed.

MYTH BUSTERS

MYTH: If an election worker writes on your ballot, it invalidates it and your vote will not be counted.

TRUTH: This is not true in NC; election workers write on ballots for different reasons as required by law.
